

Centers for Disease Control and Prevention

Federal agency which protects the health and safety of people by supplying current information and findings concerning public health.

Environmental Protection Agency

Federal agency which concentrates on protecting the public by focusing on environmental concerns and regulations.

Idaho Department of Environmental Quality

State agency which protects public health through local and regional offices, air quality, water quality and waste programs divisions.

Association of Public Health Laboratories \(APHL\)

Promotes the interest of public health by working with public health laboratories.

National Laboratory Training Network \(NLTN\)

Provides laboratory training courses in clinical, environmental, and public health lab topics.

State of Idaho Homeland Security

To save life and to limit human suffering, injury to wildlife, damage to natural resources, private and public property, the environment and the economy as a result of the harmful affects of natural and man-caused disasters, from all hazards, including terrorism and the use of Weapons of Mass Destruction, in support of local governments and communities.

Idaho State Police

Protecting the lives, property and constitutional rights of people in Idaho since 1919.

Clinical Laboratory Improvement Amendments (CLIA)

Passed in 1988, this established quality standards for all laboratory testing.

Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act of 1996 (HIPAA)

Information about HIPAA and what it means to the health consumer.

United States Fish and Wildlife Service

The mission of the U.S. Fish and Wildlife Service is working with others to conserve, protect, and enhance fish, wildlife, plants and their habitats for the continuing benefit of the American people.

World Health Organization

The World Health Organization is the United Nations specialized agency for health. WHO's objective, as set out in its Constitution, is the attainment by all peoples of the highest possible level of health.

Centers for Medicare and Medicaid Services' website (CMS)

CMS regulates all laboratory testing (except research) performed on humans in the U.S.

The National Institute of Environmental Health Sciences

Fact sheets, news releases, press releases etc on things such as allergies, asthma, kids' health, obesity, and other health info.